

DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION AND MOBILIZATION

STATEMENT DERIVED BY CDE. HILMA NDINELAGO NICANOR, SWAPO PARTY SECRETARY FOR INFORMATION AND MOBILIZATION, 29th NOVEMBER 2024

In line with the ECN's obligation to provide every registered voter an opportunity to fully exercise his or her right to cast their votes, HE The President has extended the period for the election of the President and for the election of members of the National Assembly to the 29th and 30th November 2024 until the hour of 21h00.

The SWAPO Party thus, urges its regional, district, branches and section structures to encourage all SWAPO Party members, supporters and sympathizers who are eligible to vote and have not yet cast their votes to make use of this window of opportunity to exercise their democratic right.

Furthermore, I on behalf of the SWAPO Party, extends our Party profound appreciation to our members for having conducted themselves in accordance with electoral rules and regulations during this important democratic process.

#N

The SWAPO Party, therefore, urges its rank and files, and all peace-loving Namibians to continue exercising discipline and conduct themselves in a manner that promotes and foster peace and unity during the ongoing electoral process.

Cde. Hilma Ndinelago Nicanor

SWAPO Party Secretary for Information and Mobilization
